Paul Carmouche Endorsed by Centrist “Blue Dog” Coalition

Blue Dogs Highlight Carmouche’s Commitment to Responsibility and Accountability

Shreveport, LA - Paul Carmouche, Democratic Congressional Candidate in Louisiana’s 4th District, announced today that he has been endorsed by the centrist "Blue Dog" Coalition, a group of fiscally conservative, commonsense Democrats in the House of Representatives.

Carmouche, who has served as Caddo Parish’s District Attorney for nearly 30 years, has a demonstrated record of bringing responsibility and accountability to government, a top priority of the Blue Dogs.

“I feel honored and privileged to be endorsed by the Blue Dogs, a group that so closely represents my beliefs and values. My hope is to take Louisiana values and thirty years of experience as Caddo Parish District Attorney with me to bring common sense back to Washington and to end the partisan gridlock,” said Paul Carmouche.

"The Blue Dogs are looking for candidates who share our commitment to restoring fiscal discipline and commonsense to the federal government. Through his many years of public service in Caddo Parish, Paul Carmouche has demonstrated that he is, without a doubt, one of these candidates," said Representative Mike Ross (D-AR), Blue Dog Co-Chair for Communications. “We look forward to working with Paul Carmouche to bring an end to the partisan bickering in Washington and restore responsibility and accountability to the federal government.”

"I've known Paul Carmouche for decades, and he has always been a dedicated public servant who works tirelessly on behalf of the people of north Louisiana," said Blue Dog member Rep. Charlie Melancon (D-LA). “He is a fine person and would represent our values well in Washington. I look forward to working with him in the Blue Dog Coalition to reduce wasteful government spending and reign in the federal deficit."

The fiscally conservative Democratic Blue Dog Coalition was formed in 1995 with the goal of representing the center of the House of Representatives and appealing to the mainstream values of the American public. The Blue Dogs are dedicated to a core set of beliefs that transcend partisan politics, including a deep commitment to the financial stability and national security of the United States.
