House Majority Whip James Clyburn to Visit Shreveport, Announce Support for Carmouche

SHREVEPORT, La – House Majority Whip James Clyburn (D-SC) will visit Shreveport on Sunday to show his support for Caddo Parish District Attorney and 4th district Congressional candidate Paul Carmouche.

“It is so important for Democrats to come together and support strong candidates like Paul Carmouche,” Clyburn said. “Paul has a distinguished career as Caddo Parish’s chief prosecutor, he is just the type of candidate we need in Congress, and I look forward to working with him in the House.”

Clyburn’s visit comes just 15 days ahead of the November 4th election.

“I am very grateful for the support of Congressman Clyburn,” Carmouche said. “His visit underscores the importance of this election and his message of unity carries a tremendous amount of weight around the country, and especially right here in the 4th Congressional district.”

In 2006, Congressman Clyburn was unanimously elected by his fellow Democratic Members of Congress to the position of House Majority Whip—the third highest position in the U.S. House of Representatives. He was first elected in 1992, and in 1998, he was unanimously elected to serve as Chair of the Congressional Black Caucus.

PLEASE NOTE: Congressman Clyburn will attend a private event from 6:00 p.m. - 8:00 p.m. for Carmouche supporters. A 15 minute press availability with both Clyburn and Carmouche will be held outdoors beginning at 5:45 at 637 Overton Brooks Road in Shreveport. The onsite press contact is Jacob Berenbroick – cell (270) 300-0537.
