Louisiana District Attorneys Endorse Carmouche

Beauregard D.A. Burton along with D.A.'s from Jefferson and Terrebonne Parishes Announce Support

SHREVEPORT, La – Three Louisiana District Attorneys announced their support for Congressional candidate Paul Carmouche on Tuesday.

Beauregard Parish District Attorney David Burton along with District Attorneys Paul Connick, Jr., (Jefferson Parish) and Joseph Waitz (Terrebonne Parish) endorsed Carmouche in his bid for the 4th District Congressional seat.

“Throughout his career Paul has built a reputation of being tough on criminals and a voice for victims,” Burton said. Burton, whose DeRidder office is in the 4th Congressional District noted that “Carmouche’s tenure has been a model for other D.A.’s around the state.”

In thanking the prosecutors, Carmouche pledged to “work hard in Washington to make sure that state and local law enforcement have the resources they need to continue fighting crime.”

Yesterday, the Shreveport Fire Fighters Association endorsed Carmouche.

Since 1978, Carmouche has served as Caddo Parish District Attorney. During his nearly thirty years of service, Paul has taken thousands of violent criminals off the streets and put them behind bars and worked with local law enforcement and first responders. Carmouche is a Louisiana Democrat who wants to bring leadership back to Washington D.C. and end the partisan gridlock to bring real leadership and change.
