Paul Carmouche, Congressional Candidate, Reacts to Decision to Halt Cyber Command

SHREVEPORT – Responding to recent reports of the Air Force’s decision to halt the Cyber Command program, Caddo Parish District Attorney and Congressional candidate Paul Carmouche released the following statement:

“Today the Air Force apparently made a decision to suspend the Cyber Command program. I am deeply upset by this decision. It is a step in the wrong direction. A new battlefield is emerging in cyberspace, with new borders, that we as a nation need to defend. Northwest Louisiana and Barksdale Air Force Base remain primed to be on the frontlines of this technological war. In Congress, I will fight to make sure that our men and women in uniform get the funding and training they need to fight 21st century battles. I look forward to working with the Department of Defense and military leaders to get the project back on track.”

Paul Carmouche has served as Caddo Parish District Attorney since 1978. During his nearly thirty years of service, Paul has taken thousands of violent criminals off the streets and put them behind bars. Carmouche is a Louisiana Democrat who wants to bring leadership back to Washington D.C. and end the partisan gridlock to bring real leadership and change.
