Paul Carmouche Qualifies For U.S Congress

Shreveport, Louisiana – Caddo Parish D.A. Paul Carmouche, Democratic Candidate for Congress, officially filed papers this morning with the Louisiana Secretary of State qualifying him to run for the U.S. House of Representatives in Louisiana's 4th Congressional District.

“It is my hope to be a strong, independent voice for change in Congress and truly represent Louisiana values,” said Carmouche. “I have spent my life protecting the people of Northwest Louisiana and keeping our families safe. I pledge to fight for our community, working to bring down the cost of gas and groceries, to give our veterans the healthcare they deserve, and to lower taxes for the middle class.”

Paul Carmouche has served as Caddo Parish District Attorney since 1979. During his nearly thirty years of service, Paul has taken thousands of violent criminals off the streets and put them behind bars. A native Louisianan, Paul was born and raised in Napoleonville. Paul has lived in Shreveport for 39 years and he and his wife Marti are the parents of two children. Carmouche is a Louisiana Democrat who wants to bring leadership back to Washington D.C. and end the partisan gridlock to bring real change.
