Non-Partisan Cook Political Report Ranks LA-04 Race “Toss-Up”

Paul Carmouche’s Broad Appeal Reason for Toss-Up Status

Shreveport, LA – The Cook Political Report, an independent, non-partisan newsletter that analyzes campaigns, changed the ranking of the Congressional Race in Louisiana’s 4th District from “Lean Republican” to “Toss Up” based on the strength of District Attorney Paul Carmouche’s candidacy.

David Wasserman, House Editor of the Cook Political Report, wrote “You could probably count on one hand the number of living Democrats who would have a chance of stealing this GOP-leaning seat...Democratic Caddo Parish D.A. Paul Carmouche is one of them.”

“Paul Carmouche will be an independent, experienced voice for Louisiana values in Congress. The voters of Northwest Louisiana have known this for 30 years – and now the political pundits of Washington are seeing it too,” said Greg Richardson, Carmouche’s campaign manager. “Louisiana families are ready for new leadership and Paul Carmouche represents the steady hand of change that the people of this district want.”

Wasserman also noted that the LA-04 race “could be yet another big trouble spot for Republicans in the South.”
